

Media Statement

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SEPANG, 6th SEPTEMBER 2013 - AirAsia intends to vigorously defend the allegations that it has infringed section 4(2) (b) of the Competitions Act under the collaboration it entered with MAS in August 2011.

AirAsia has always put compliance as our utmost priority and similarly we have taken necessary steps to ensure that the collaboration arrangement was in compliance with applicable law in every respect. As such we will review the matter with our counsel and reply to the Malaysia Competition Commission (MyCC) with our defence within the specified period of time.
